

Tailgating information

Delaware State University acknowledges tailgating is a time honored tradition. We encourage you to have a good time and ask that you do so responsibly. The following restrictions apply:

- Only one parking space per vehicle
- Tailgating is limited and can only be in conjunction with your parking spot.
- Tailgating is permitted only in areas where the flow traffic is not obstructed and must comply with all university regulations.
- Only small weighted tents may be erected in tailgating/parking lot areas.
- Grill cooking with charcoal or LP gas is allowed. However, all grills must be supervised while in use and be fully extinguished before being left unattended.
- Waste food items and trash, including charcoal, must be disposed of in appropriate containers.
- The sale of food or alcohol in this area is prohibited. Persons found in violation will be asked to leave the tailgate area. DSU is a dry campus.

Failure to comply with tailgating regulations may result in the following: immediate termination of tailgating privileges in criminal prosecution or discipline or action through the Delaware State University police or local law enforcement agencies.
